

Excellence in Family History Writing Competition

Past Winners - 2002

Category 1 (newspaper columns)

1st Place. Sandra Devlin, of Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada, (for her entry entitled Free Versus Fee, a Foolish Spat, published 4 Sept. 2001 in "The Guardian," et al [17 Atlantic Canada newspapers]).

Category 2 (published articles)

1st Place. John Graham Cook, of Lincoln, Massachusetts, for his article, Artist Henry Lewis: The Case of the Falsified Resume, in Minnesota History 57/5 Spring 2001.

2nd Place. Jennifer Browning, of Draper, Utah, for her article, Notables Next Door, in Ancestry magazine, Jan/Feb. 2001.

3rd Place. Barbara Krasner-Khait, of Somerset, New Jersey, for her article Evaluating Evidence in Family Chronicle magazine, Jan/Feb. 2001.

Category 3 (Original, unpublished research story)

1st Place. Louise M. Barry, of Kansas City, Missouri, for her story, Encounters with a Family Skeleton: Pleasant Houston Spears, 1836-1912.

2nd Place. Reuben Powell, of Hobart, Washington, for his story The Search for Great-Grandma, "Missouri."

3rd Place. Amy Johnson Crow, of Reynoldsburg, Ohio, for her story, The Search for Matilda, the Merry Widow.

Category 4 (Want-to-be Writers/Columnists)

1st Place. Anthony I. "Tony" Sylvester, of Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, for his entry, The Mysterious Charity Silvester.

2nd Place. Loretta Evans, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, for her entry, Midnight at the Cemetery.

3rd Place. Frieda Risvold, of Des Moines, Washington, for her entry, Missing Pieces.