ISFHWE MEMBER PUBLICATION PROMOTION PROJECT CATALOG NGS RALEIGH, NC MAY 2017

We are proud to offer this opportunity for our members to showcase their works. This catalog is provided to facilitate the purchase of these books, giving details on the publication including order information.

After the National Genealogical Society Conference, Raleigh, NC, 11-15 May, 2017, a copy of each book will be donated to a local Genealogical Repository in the name of ISFHWE and the contributing member.

Thank you for participating in our project. Your feedback is welcome. To comment or request information, please contact Member Publication Project Coordinator Diana Crisman Smith at ISFHWEBooks@isfhwe.org.

Visit our website at www.isfhwe.org for the digital catalog from this and previous projects, for information on the next Member Publication Promotion Project, for entries in the ISFHWE Excellence-in-Writing Competition, and more.

ISFHWE MEMBER: LaBrenda Garrett-Nelson
TITLE: A Guide to Researching African American Ancestors in Laurens County, South Carolina and Selected Finding Aids
AUTHOR: LaBrenda Garrett-Nelson
PUBLISHER/PLACE: Xlibris/Bloomington, Indiana
PUBLICATION DATE: 2016
ISBN: Softcover: 978-1-5245-2353-4; Hardcover: 978-1-5245-2354-1; eBook: 978-1-5245-2352-7
DESCRIPTION: This book focuses on a single county in South Carolina, but it provides background information applicable to all SC counties, and guidance relevant to developing and executing a research plan anywhere in the historical Slave South. It imparts an understanding of the universal applicability of the "Genealogical Proof Standard" and how that standard can be met in the case of African-ancestored American families that came out of slavery. The book's seven chapters include guidance on tracing a family's history back to 1870, as well as sources relating to African American ancestors who were manumitted (or "freed") before slavery was abolished.
PRICE: Softcover, $23.99; Hardcover, $34.99; e-Book, $3.99

ISFHWE MEMBER: Frieda Stiehl
TITLE: Alfred & Agnes, The Story of My Immigrant Parents
AUTHOR: Frieda Fritz Stiehl
PUBLISHER/PLACE: Masthof Press LLC/Morgantown, PA
PUBLICATION DATE: Nov 2016
ISBN: 978-1-60126-512-8
DESCRIPTION: Alfred & Agnes is a story of survival, a compelling family history narrative set against the social political backdrop of the first half of the 20th century. Delving deep into her ancestral past, the author brings to life her parents' respective childhoods in northern (Niedersachsen) and southern (Württemberg) Germany before proceeding, with great empathy, to reveal their life stories -- their decisions to emigrate, their struggles to survive, the many hardships they endured, and the eventual achievement of their dream. A richly detailed, gratifying memoir that reads like fiction, but is true. 305 pages illustrated with 165 photographs
PRICE: $24.00
TO ORDER: Available through Masthof.com
